

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR CHILD BLOOD LEAD TESTING IN WASHINGTON

We recommend screening all children, 12 and 24 months old, using the algorithm below.

IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING ARE UNKNOWN, PERFORM A BLOOD LEAD TEST.

Examples of lead risk exposure

- Painting
- Remodeling and demolition
- Working at or visiting a gun range
- Mining, smelting, soldering, and welding
- Battery recycling
- Making lead fishing weights or ammunition
- Making stained glass
- Pottery or porcelain with lead glaze
- Imported foods, candies, and spices
- Imported ceramics and aluminum cookware
- Antique furniture, toys, and inexpensive jewelry

